

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for the Financial Year ended 31 December 2019

Arrow Global Group Plc (Arrow) takes its Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) responsibilities seriously and the business is run in a responsible and sustainable manner with a significant focus on the fair and ethical treatment of all stakeholders. As such, it is Arrow's policy that all its current activities are carried out in developed countries with strong legislation governing human rights and that it complies with such legislation and associated practices. We are committed to opposing slavery and human trafficking in our direct operations and in the indirect operations of our supply chain. This position is supported by policies and practices including our risk assessment of new suppliers and zero tolerance approach to non-compliance. This Policy will be controlled via Group Procurement, to ensure adherence within its supply chain.
